

He Washed My Feet

The moment our eyes met I knew this was the night
That I would betray Him the precious Lamb of God
No other disciple was aware of my plan
Till He stood from the table with something in His hand
His holy eyes pierced through me revealing all my sin
I knew His wrath was coming and this would be the end

But He bowed and He washed my feet
Knowing that I was the cause of His grief
When He should have scolded He whispered Peace
As He bowed and He washed my feet

Judas would fail Him but he's no worse than I
The moment I gave in to Satan's compromise
Ungrateful that Jesus had saved me from hell
I was walking so proudly and that's when I fell
His holy eyes pierced through me revealing all my sin
I knew His wrath was coming and this would be the end

But He bowed and He washed my feet
Knowing that I was the cause of His grief
When He should have scolded He whispered Peace
As He bowed and He washed my feet

When He should have scolded He whispered Peace
As He bowed the king bowed and He washed my feet
